Case No. 06-20663

ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR PRODUCTION OF WITNESSES AT TRIAL

Defendant's Motion For Production Of Witnesses At Trial (Doc. 731) is DENIED.

Defendant initially requested the government make available at trial Demetrius Flenory and Terry Lee Flenory, who were co-leaders of the conspiracy which the government charges defendant with being a member. On August 30, 2010, the Court in a Memorandum (Doc. 729) stated that Terry Lee Flenory would be made available as a witness, and that Demetrius Flenory's testimony would be cumulative.

Defendant's Motion For Production Of Witnesses At Trial (Doc. 731) asks that Demetrius Flenory be made available also. The motion does not explain the nature of the testimony defendant would expect of Demetrius Flenory, or why his testimony would not be cumulative to the testimony he expects to elicit from Terry Lee Flenory. It is for this reason that the motion has been denied.

SO ORDERED.
